

Eric Newman <[REDACTED]>

RE: 1804 Dollar book

3 messages

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>

Thu, Dec 3, 2009 at 3:16 PM

Reply-To: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Mr.. Newman:

Thank you for your note.

I have finally received the two copies from Whitman (of the 1804 $ Tribute edition).

I am going to send all tomorrow.

There will be two packages inside, one with your book, the other for you to sign and return to me, I'll have the postage already attached for your convenience.

Thank you very much for helping me make a great addition to my collection. I am going to send them along to Ken for signing when I get them back, since I have a few other books to add to them.

Again, thank you very much.

Frank

Frank Colletti

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Tuesday, November 17, 2009 2:56 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: 1804 Dollar book

Dear Mr. Colletti:

It is kind of you to make such a fuss over the 1804 Dollar books and my numismatic writing. I will gladly sign your copies as long as they are also submitted to Kenneth Bressett for autograph either before or after they are sent to me. Perhaps you can save time and postage if you instruct one of us to send it to the other and furnish a strong reusable container, labels and postage for the three way routing. Incidentally I do not have a Tribute Edition soft cover copy if you have a spare.

My mailing address is 6450 Cecil Ave., St. Louis MO 63105.

Happy Thanksgiving.

Eric P. Newman

In a message dated 11/17/2009 9:09:38 A.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Mr. Newman:

First, please let me introduce myself.

Whitman just published my first book, the Guide Book to The Red Book of US Coins, about collecting the Guide Book and all of its varieties.

I want to tell you that I have read your books for years, and have enjoyed all of them.

I was recently able to acquire a copy of both varieties of the original 1804 book, including the pre-publication one that was later changed to include the King of Siam set.

In addition, I have ordered both the hard & soft covers for the 'Tribute' editions of the book.

If possibly, I wondered if I could send the books to you for signing, so that I would have a truly unique set?

Thank you for your time and I appreciate corresponding with you.

Frank Colletti

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>

Tue, Dec 8, 2009 at 10:16 AM

Reply-To: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Mr.. Newman:

Hi, I hope that you are well.

Just a note, I was able to send out a package to you last week, however, I asked my wife to mail it for me.

That is why I neglected to include the note that I had prepared for you.

Anyway, sorry about that.

But, there is a package included with the extra copy of the new (tribute) edition that you requested.

In addition, the other copies, for your signing were included separately, with an envelope for return mailing.

Take care.

[Quoted text hidden]

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>

Fri, Dec 11, 2009 at 1:16 PM

Reply-To: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Eric:

Did you ever get the books?

I am getting concerned.

Frank

[Quoted text hidden]

Eric Newman <[REDACTED]>

Re: 1804 Dollar book

2 messages

[REDACTED] <[REDACTED]>
To: [REDACTED]

Fri, Dec 11, 2009 at 5:25 PM

Dear Frank:

I have been out of town and received your package on my return with lots of other mail. I will get to your matter shortly.
Please do not worry. Eric

In a message dated 12/11/2009 12:17:11 P.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Eric:

Did you ever get the books?
I am getting concerned.

Frank

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Tuesday, November 17, 2009 2:56 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: 1804 Dollar book

Dear Mr. Colletti:

It is kind of you to make such a fuss over the 1804 Dollar books and my numismatic writing. I will gladly sign your copies as long as they are also submitted to Kenneth Bressett for autograph either before or after they are sent to me. Perhaps you can save time and postage if you instruct one of us to send it to the other and furnish a strong reusable container, labels and postage for the three way routing.

Incidentally I do not have a Tribute Edition soft cover copy if you have a spare.

My mailing address is 6450 Cecil Ave., St. Louis MO 63105.

Happy Thanksgiving. Eric P. Newman

In a message dated 11/17/2009 9:09:38 A.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Mr. Newman:

First, please let me introduce myself.

Whitman just published my first book, the Guide Book to The Red Book of US Coins, about collecting the Guide Book and all of its varieties.

I want to tell you that I have read your books for years, and have enjoyed all of them.

I was recently able to acquire a copy of both varieties of the original 1804 book, including the pre-publication one that was later changed to include the King of Siam set.

In addition, I have ordered both the hard & soft covers for the 'Tribute' editions of the book.

If possibly, I wondered if I could send the books to you for signing, so that I would have a truly unique set?

Thank you for your time and I appreciate corresponding with you.

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>

Mon, Jan 4, 2010 at 4:16 PM

Reply-To: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Eric:

I hope that you had a great New Year's Eve and Day.

I finally got thru to Whitman's and they say that they did not make any soft cover copies of the Tribute edition.

Do you have a soft cover?

I'd love to get one.

Sorry about that.

Frank

PS I believe that I sent you priority mail for the book, if so, you can just call the Post Office and they are supposed to pick it up from you at no charge.

Please let me know and I try to make arrangements for you.

Thanks again.

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]

[Quoted text hidden]

[Quoted text hidden]

Eric Newman <[REDACTED]>

Re: 1804 Dollar book

3 messages

Fri, Dec 18, 2009 at 6:05 PM

To: [REDACTED]

Dear Frank:

This is a difficult time to put anything in the mail but I will get to your project soon. I am not permitted to drive due to age. I believe I told you that I did not have a soft copy of the Tribute 1904 edition and would appreciate that if you had one. You sent me two hard copies and I will be returning both of them and the others duly signed along with any excess postage you sent. Have a happy holiday. Eric

In a message dated 12/3/2009 2:17:00 P.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Mr.. Newman:

Thank you for your note.

I have finally received the two copies from Whitman (of the 1804 $ Tribute edition).

I am going to send all tomorrow.

There will be two packages inside, one with your book, the other for you to sign and return to me, I'll have the postage already attached for your convenience.

Thank you very much for helping me make a great addition to my collection. I am going to send them along to Ken for signing when I get them back, since I have a few other books to add to them.

Again, thank you very much.

Frank

Frank Colletti

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Tuesday, November 17, 2009 2:56 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: 1804 Dollar book

Dear Mr. Colletti:

It is kind of you to make such a fuss over the 1804 Dollar books and my numismatic writing. I will gladly sign your copies as long as they are also submitted to Kenneth Bressett for autograph either before or after they are sent to me. Perhaps you can save time and postage if you instruct one of us to send it to the other and furnish a strong reusable container, labels and postage for the three way routing. Incidentally I do not have a Tribute Edition soft cover copy if you have a spare.

My mailing address is 6450 Cecil Ave., St. Louis MO 63105.

Happy Thanksgiving. Eric P. Newman

In a message dated 11/17/2009 9:09:38 A.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Mr. Newman:

First, please let me introduce myself.

Whitman just published my first book, the Guide Book to The Red Book of US Coins, about collecting the Guide Book and all of its varieties.

I want to tell you that I have read your books for years, and have enjoyed all of them.

I was recently able to acquire a copy of both varieties of the original 1804 book, including the pre-publication one that was later changed to include the King of Siam set.

In addition, I have ordered both the hard & soft covers for the 'Tribute' editions of the book.

If possibly, I wondered if I could send the books to you for signing, so that I would have a truly unique set?

Thank you for your time and I appreciate corresponding with you.

Frank Colletti

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>
Reply-To: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]

Fri, Dec 18, 2009 at 6:35 PM

Eric

I asked Whitman to send me the soft cover, and that is what they sent.

I'll try to get another and be more specific this time.
Sorry about that.

Frank

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
[Quoted text hidden]
[Quoted text hidden]

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>
Reply-To: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]

Wed, Dec 23, 2009 at 2:12 PM

Eric:

I have a question in to Whitman about the soft cover, they haven't replied yet.

Sorry about that, I had asked about the soft cover, and that was what they sent to me, but, I am still trying!

Take care, and have a great holiday.
Frank

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
[Quoted text hidden]
[Quoted text hidden]

Eric Newman <[REDACTED]>

Re: 1804 Dollar book

4 messages

Mon, Jan 4, 2010 at 4:46 PM

To: [REDACTED]

Dear Frank:

I was under the impression that a soft cover 1804 book was planned but if it did not occur then that is that. I have not been out of the house for several weeks due to the weather and will in a few days send all the material back using the slow postal way after packing them very carefully and return the unnecessary postage. I am sorry for any disappointing delays. Our post office is so messed up with overload from some nearby offices being closed. Have a wonderful 2010. Eric

In a message dated 1/4/2010 3:17:18 P.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Eric:

I hope that you had a great New Year's Eve and Day.

I finally got thru to Whitman's and they say that they did not make any soft cover copies of the Tribute edition.

Do you have a soft cover?

I'd love to get one.

Sorry about that.

Frank

PS I believe that I sent you priority mail for the book, if so, you can just call the Post Office and they are supposed to pick it up from you at no charge.

Please let me know and I try to make arrangements for you.

Thanks again.

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED] [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Friday, December 11, 2009 5:25 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: 1804 Dollar book

Dear Frank:

I have been out of town and received your package on my return with lots of other mail. I will get to your matter shortly. Please do not worry. Eric

In a message dated 12/11/2009 12:17:11 P.M. Central Standard Time, [REDACTED] writes:

Eric:

Did you ever get the books?
I am getting concerned.

Frank

-----Original Message-----

From: [redacted] [mailto:[redacted]]
Sent: Tuesday, November 17, 2009 2:56 PM
To: [redacted]
Subject: Re: 1804 Dollar book

Dear Mr. Colletti:

It is kind of you to make such a fuss over the 1804 Dollar books and my numismatic writing. I will gladly sign your copies as long as they are also submitted to Kenneth Bressett for autograph either before or after they are sent to me. Perhaps you can save time and postage if you instruct one of us to send it to the other and furnish a strong reusable container, labels and postage for the three way routing. Incidentally I do not have a Tribute Edition soft cover copy if you have a spare.
My mailing address is 6450 Cecil Ave., St. Louis MO 63105.
Happy Thanksgiving. Eric P. Newman

In a message dated 11/17/2009 9:09:38 A.M. Central Standard Time,
[redacted] writes:

Mr. Newman:

First, please let me introduce myself.

Whitman just published my first book, the Guide Book to The Red Book of US Coins, about collecting the Guide Book and all of its varieties.

I want to tell you that I have read your books for years, and have enjoyed all of them.

I was recently able to acquire a copy of both varieties of the original 1804 book, including the pre-publication one that was later changed to include the King of Siam set.

In addition, I have ordered both the hard & soft covers for the 'Tribute' editions of the book.

If possibly, I wondered if I could send the books to you for signing, so that I would have a truly unique set?

Thank you for your time and I appreciate corresponding with you.

Frank Colletti

Frank's email <[redacted]>

Fri, Jan 22, 2010 at 3:00 PM

Reply-To: [redacted]

To: [redacted]

Eric:

Just a quick note to say: thank you!

Very much!

I received the package today, and your signatures certainly will enhance my collection.

I hope that we will be able to continue to correspond.

Frank

-----Original Message-----

From: [redacted] [mailto:[redacted]]

[Quoted text hidden]

[Quoted text hidden]

Frank's email <[REDACTED]>

Tue, Feb 16, 2010 at 1:49 PM

Reply-To: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Eric:

Just a quick note to thank you for signing my books.

They will be a prized addition to my collection.

As an added note, I never knew how many books you had authored!

I am trying to pick some up on the aftermarket, but (for you info) they are either very scarce or anyone who has them is keeping them and not offering them for sale.

I wish that I had been able to obtain some others for your signature.

Please take care, and I look forward to many years of correspondence.

Frank

[REDACTED] <[REDACTED]>
To: [REDACTED]

Tue, Feb 16, 2010 at 3:19 PM

I have only written a couple of whole books. Most of my writings are included in ANS material, ANA material, journals, conference publications, magazines or other printed items. Thanks for mentioning your continued interest/ Eric

[Quoted text hidden]